MEDIA ADVISORY

BATS TO SHARE BASEBALL TIPS AT YMCA NEWCOMER ACADEMY SUMMER PROGRAM
Kids new to the U.S. will mix with Spanish-speaking players

WHAT:
Louisville Bats players will visit the YMCA’s Newcomer Academy Summer Program to help kids learn about the training and skills required to be a competitive athlete. The Bats will run drills, demonstrate stretching exercises and talk about the discipline required of successful athletes. These students are new to the United States and attend school at the ESL Newcomer Academy. They also have the chance to play soccer and other sports during the school year and in the summer through the YMCA program. They speak several different languages, including Spanish.

WHEN:
Friday, July 12, 10:30 a.m.

WHERE:
Olmsted North Academy, 4530 Bellevue Ave

PHOTO OPPORTUNITY
Spanish-speaking players from the Louisville Bats will talk to some of the children in their native language.

CONTACT:
Nina Walfoort
Director of Marketing and Communications
587-2113 or nwalfoort@ymcalouisville.org

###

About the Louisville area YMCAs
The Y is the nation’s leading nonprofit committed to strengthening communities through youth development, healthy living and social responsibility. The Y is, and always will be, dedicated to building healthy, confident, connected and secure children, adults, families and communities.